

Marvin D. Hatcher

August 19, 1952 - October 12, 2012

MARVIN DuBOIS HATCHER was born on August 19, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland from the union of love of his late parents, Elsie and Richard Hatcher. On October 12, 2012 after a very brief illness, god called His angel home.

Marvin was educated at the Delray School, William S. Baer School and graduated from the Alicia Crossland School. Marvin also attended the Maryland Rehabilitation Center, where he earned his certificate in Custodial Training.

In spite of Marvin's physical challenges, he embraced life and always wore a smile. He always had kind words for everyone. Small in stature, but so large in spirit. Through all personal adversity, he always displayed that he could be the best he could be.

Marvin was an avid jazz fan. He enjoyed a wide range of artist from Duke Ellington, Arthur Prysock to Incognito. You could usually find him on Sundays, clad in a suit and appreciating the jazz artist at The Left Bank Jazz Society, which was family affiliated.

Marvin was a man of many interest, attending oriole games and had an extensive knowledge of computer technology.

Marvin's life-long dream was to maintain and sustain his own home. Marvin resided at the Kirkwood House Apartments for approximately twelve years. Marvin took a lot of pride and interest in Maintaining his home with a fiercely independent spirit..

Marvin is survived by a dear, loving and dedicated sister, Ms. Mechonne Hatcher- Jackson; a loving uncle, Harry Price; a host of cousins, numerous friends and well wishes, and his special friend, Ms. Diane Montgomery, who he so admired.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The bible offers comfort at Acts 24:15, I have a hope towards God, that there will be a resurrection of the righteous..I hope that this will bring you comfort in your time of grief.

S. Smith - October 20, 2012 at 10:04 AM

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

Ms Springer - October 20, 2012 at 07:23 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
