

Marvin Hines

May 21, 1934 - June 13, 2004

Marvin Hines, son of the late Dorsey and Mary Hines, was born on May 21, 1934 in E. St. Louis, Illinois. He departed this earthly life on June 13, 2004 and is now resting in the arms of Jesus. He is a graduate of Lovejoy High School and completed one year of college. Here he also received the beginning of his religious education at the Triumph Church of God in E. St. Louis, Illinois. Marvin acquired military training and served in the Marine Corps for over five years. Marvin was joined in Holy Matrimony to Catherine Williams on July 13, 1960. From this union was born his first daughter, now deceased, Sandra Hines-Nesmith. For thirty-two years Marvin worked for the State of Maryland as a steward and cook in Jessup, Maryland. When Marvin joined the New Carmel Star Baptist Church his religious education continued. He served in various capacities such as Sunday school Teacher and Deacon. On November 5, 1992, he was ordained as a Minister of the Gospel and served as an Assistant Minister at New Carmel Star Baptist Church. Singing was one of the joys Marvin had in life. As a teenager, he, along with some of his friends, sang with Jerry Butler. He was also active on his church choir in Illinois. At New Carmel Star Baptist Church he sang on the Senior Choir and with the Combined Choirs. Marvin was also an avid sports fan and you could always find him on the basketball court or ball-field. Rev. Hines leaves to cherish his memory: a devoted, loving wife, Catherine Hines; first son, Marvin Keon Hines; second daughter, Shannon Michelle Hines; foster son, Jamar Mathney; three brothers, George Hines of Washington, D.C., Earl Hines of San Antonio, Texas and Clifford Hines of East St. Louis, Illinois; one sister, Gloria Jean Hawkins of East St. Louis, Illinois; two sisters-in-law, Bernice Hines and Margie Hines; one son-in-law, David Garrett; one goddaughter, Glenda Moore; special friend who was just like a brother, Haywood Bass; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Hines, To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. I am praying that God will keep you in his perfect peace during this time of bereavement. It is difficult to lose a loved one, but Mr. Hines is in a better place and even if he had the opportunity to come back he would not. What better place to be than in heaven with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Keyza Caldwell##imported-end##
