

Marvin R. Kennedy

January 28, 1953 - April 29, 2014

Marvin Roosevelt Kennedy was born in Baltimore, Md on January 28, 1953 to Dorothy Kennedy and the late Norman Kennedy. Marvin was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. After completing his education, Marvin worked for many years as a Facilities Specialist at the now-closed Church Home Hospital.

Marvin was outgoing, adventurous and kind hearted. He had many friends, most of whom called him "Ive." He was a lifelong resident of East Baltimore, and had many friends area-wide. Ive was known by so many people in the Harford-Cliftview-Darley-25th St and Norman Avenue area that they crowned him "Mayor of Harford Road." He enjoyed a good party, and if one wasn't on and poppin', he would start one on his own. Ive lived his life to the fullest, and on his own terms.

As a child Marvin attended various churches, but never became committed to one. However, it gives the family great joy to announce that several hours before his passing, he accepted the Lord, Jesus Christ, as his personal Savior. We give all praise to God!

Marvin's father, Norman and his eldest sister, Brenda, preceded him in death. Left to cherish his memory are: his mother, Dorothy; 1 sister Veronica; 4 brothers and their wives, Bernard (Joyce), Dennis (Antoinette), Reginald (Kelly) and Eric (Lisa); 3 Nieces; 5 nephews; 2 aunts, Doris Scott and Bernice Gross (Gastonia, NC); many great-nieces and great-nephews; and numerous other relatives and friends. His sweetheart, Shirley Hendrick, and two of his lifelong buddies, Joseph Hance and Phillip Horton, occupied a special place on Ive's heart.

“ I write you with heartfelt condolences at this sad time. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. We can find comfort from God's word the Bible at (Acts 24:15) " There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Jehovah God assures us that our dear loved ones will receive a resurrection to a restored beautiful paradise earth. Death will be removed from all the earth (Isaiah 25:8). Tears of sorrow will vanish(Revelation 21:3-4). No one will die from natural causes or weep. May Jehovah God of all comfort be with you and your family (2 Corinthians 1:3-4).

“ To the Kennedy Family,

I wanted to take a minute just to write to say how sorry I was to read of the death of your family member. Death is such a hurtful thing. But the bible tells us that God will get rid of anything that hurts us. Isaiah 65:17 says that when these terrible things are done away with 'the former things will not be called to mind or come up into the heart'. How wonderful! Just remember Acts 24:15 says that 'there will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous. So we have the hope of seeing our loved ones again. Well I do hope this information has been encouraging to you. If you have any comments or questions please e-mail me.
