

Marvin A. Rose

September 11, 1976 - March 2, 2018

Marvin A. Rose, son of the late Jim Goings and Helen Rose, was born on September 11, 1976 in Dillon, South Carolina. Marvin "Mark" as many called him, received his call from heaven on March 2, 2018.

At an early age Mark, along with his family, moved to Baltimore, Maryland, where he attended Baltimore City Public Schools. Mark worked various construction jobs as a laborer. He was a person that wore many hats in his family. Tiger as only his mother could call him, was her own personal Uber driver. He was the father figure to all his nieces and nephews whether it was taking them out for a day of fun or sitting in the emergency room when they were sick. He was always there when his sisters needed him the most, whether being their maintenance man or just hanging out. He was the glue that kept the family together, and his smile alone would light up a room.

Marvin is preceded in death by his father Jim Goings, stepfather David Smith, grandfather Linton Rose, uncle Bobby Fletcher, sister Cynthia Baker, mother and father-in-law Marlene Perry and Otis Hughes Sr., two aunts Mary Joyce and Ella Lee Rose, two nephews Jamal and Jaheem Jones, his great-grandmother Helen Ratley and best friend Purnell Powell.

He leaves to cherish his memory: devoted Mother Helen Rose, wife Yvonne Hughes, two sons, Devonate Hughes & Bailey Blu Rose two step children
