

Mary Moore Acree

December 30, 1936 - February 26, 2025

Mary "Becky" Acree, 88, of Richmond, Virginia, departed this life peacefully on February 26, 2025, at her home, surrounded by her loving family.

Born on December 30, 1936, to John T. and Elizabeth Moore. She attended King William High School. She later moved to Richmond, VA. to start her family.

Mary married her sweetheart Linwood Acree, Sr. on August 8, 1960. They later had one son Linwood Acree, Jr. She worked and retired from MCV where she was a supervisor in housekeeping. She was a member of Rock Spring Baptist Church in Manquin, VA. Mary would drive from Richmond every Sunday to attend church as long as OL' Arthur didn't interfere...lol !

Mary was known for her outspoken personality, compassionate heart and unwavering dedication to her family and friends. She loved cooking-her potato salad was a must have, traveling, playing cards, bus trips to the casino and gardening. She looked forward to planting her tomatoes. Everyone knew she did not play about her beautiful plants. Her presence will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Mary leaves cherished memories to her loving devoted husband, Linwood Acree, Sr., son Linwood Acree, Jr., granddaughter, Tiffany Thompson, and sister

Julia Davis. She had 5 grandchildren, Tiffany (Orlando), Corey (Sakeena), Dominique (departed), Xavier and Quincy; 16 great-grandchildren, Cory Jr., DaeJuan, Dejah, Sincere, Ta'Coreya, Corey Jr., (CJ), Harmony, Kennedy, O'Mari, O'Mere, Jordan, Amir, Camden, Callie, Charlotte and Caydence; and 4 great-great- grandchildren, Kayden, Khalaya, Keyohnni and Ke'Ari. Special cousins, Carolyn Branch and Rev. Clarence "Bubba" Moore, along with a host of other relatives and friends.

Mary was preceded in death by her parents, John T. and Elizabeth, 6 siblings and one grandchild.
