

Mary Adelaide Newton

July 13, 1923 - May 6, 2009

Mary Adelaide Newton, daughter of the late Obadiah and Vernell Parker, was born July 13, 1923 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the eldest of four children. After a lengthy illness she departed this life on May 6, 2009 at St. Agnes Hospital. She received her education at St. Pius Catholic School and graduated from St. Francis Academy. Upon completion of her education she became a full time employee working at various jobs such as BVD shirt factory. She was also employed by Glenn L. Martin factories at Middle River and Canton where she trained as a Riveter and made parts for airplanes, such as the B-17, B-25 and the flying fortress during World War II. After twenty-one years of service she retired from the University of Maryland Hospital, where she was trained in the preparation of special baby formulas. She was married and later divorced. From that union a daughter Gwendolyn was born. After retirement Mary traveled to different places, especially California, to visit relatives. She loved to entertain family and friends and was well known for her sweet potato pies and peach cobblers. She enjoyed listening to music and she loved to dance. She was a member of New All Saints Catholic Church. Mary made numerous friends wherever she went. She loved her family and will be missed by everyone who knew her. Left to cherish her memory are: her devoted daughter, Gwendolyn; four grandchildren, Kenneth, Pamela, Maureen and Brian; seven great-grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; a sister, Estelle; a brother, Roland; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. A brother Jerome

Parker, preceded her in death.

Tribute Wall

“ Mary Adelaide Newton

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of Mary. When we lose a loved one in death, it is truly heartbreaking and so hard to come to terms with. Sad to say, but Adam and Eve brought this legacy of sickness and death upon us by their disobedience. Romans 5:12 puts it this way, For just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men, because they had all sinned." Fortunately, our loving heavenly father didnot hold us responsilble for their decision, and he has made the way out for us by sending us his beloved son Jesus, to buy back what Adam lost for us; when he gave up his precious life in our behalf. The scriptures remind us of this by letting us know at 1st Cor 15:22, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ, all will be made alive." One day the dead will hear the voice of Jesus, and they will come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28,29. May you be comforted by this wonderful hope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the Family, Please accept my condolences. May you find comfort in the hope of the resurrection at John 11:38-44. Jesus demonstrated this with his friend Lazarus. May these verses help to strengthen and encourage you during this time.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful resurrection hope and may you draw closer to the ones responsible for it: Jehovah God and his only begotten-son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM