

MARY E ALLEN

June 6, 1922 - July 20, 2020

Mary E. Allen, affectionately known to all as "Sis" & "Oma", fell asleep in death on Monday July 20, 2020. Her abrupt passing is truly a shock to us who are left behind to mourn the loss of her considerable life.

On June 6, 1922, Mary entered into the world as result of the union of Coy Jones and Emma Johnson. She was their second born of seven children. Mary would eventually go on to attend Washington Coleman High School, in South Boston, Virginia where she proudly received he diploma. During that time, she gave birth to her one and only loving son Williams Jones. In 1955, Mary would move to Baltimore, Maryland and to help support and care for her son, she obtained employment as a housekeeper in Pikesville, Maryland. Eventually she moved on to work at Maryland Pharmacy. She then would move to New Hersey with her husband James Herbert Buster who preceded her in death, where she worked as a Sales Clerk at K-Mart. In 1989 she would move back to Baltimore, Maryland and then married her husband Eugene Allen who also preceded her in death. At that time she lived in Brooklyn, Maryland while enjoying her retirement.

Often identified by her tall and slender stature, Mary could at times be extremely boisterous, making her presence felt by those around her. But those who knew her best knew she was a servant of the Lord at Community Baptist Church, always fashionable, and loved to travel. She was mostly recognized as a private and humble woman, who was easily satisfied with the simplest pleasures of life. Therefore, to no surprise, her most valued possession was truly her family. Namely her grandchild Josephine Zillmann-Georgie. She happily embraced being a grandmother and great grandmother who did not hesitate to speak about the joyous moments she spent with them. She prided herself on always remembering to send out Christmas and birthday cards as evidence that grandma was thinking of them. Despite each of us commiserating over the loss of our cherished and beloved Mary in our own way, we have certainly come together on this day as one voice to celebrate the moments of her life in which we were all able to be a part of in some capacity. Her memories will continue to live on and remain in the hearts and minds of her family whom she is survived by. Her son William Jones; her granddaughter Josephine Zillmann-Georgie and grandson-in-law Sean Georgie; grandson James: Woodard; 3 great grandchildren; 2 and one on the way great-great-grandchildren; & a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, neighbors and church members.
