

Mary A. Anderson

May 6, 1938 - October 6, 2010

MARY A. ANDERSON, daughter of the late Junius and Mary E. Coleman, was born in Brunswick County, Virginia, on May 6, 1938. She departed this life on October 6, 2010, after a brief illness.

She attended school in Brunswick County, Virginia and earned her G.E.D. In Baltimore, Maryland.

In 1956, she married the late Stanley R. Anderson and from this union two children were born, Darrie Anderson Neely and Dwain Anderson.

She did domestic work for several doctors for a couple of years, but later decided to be a stay home mom. She enjoyed cooking, baking, sewing and caring for her grandchildren and great-grandchildren which one would think her home was a nursery on the weekend.

“Mommy Adeline”, as she was affectionately called by her grandchildren, will be missed.

Adeline leaves to cherish her memory: daughter, Darrie Anderson Neely; two sons, Donnal Coleman and Dwain Anderson; fifteen grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren; son-in-law, Christopher Neely, Sr.; two sisters, Virginia Matthews of Upper Marlboro, Maryland and Shirley Coleman of Blackstone, Virginia and two nephews.

She was preceded in death by two children, daughter, Daphine Anderson and son, Sidney Anderson.
