

Mary Ann Cooper

February 19, 1918 - November 16, 2009

Our beloved Mary Ann Cooper, born February 19, 1918, entered into eternal life, November 16, 2009. Mary was the daughter of the late Timillius and Willie Anna Taylor. She attended Richmond Public schools throughout her school years and graduated from Armstrong High School. She accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age and was a faithful member of St. John Baptist Church for many years. Mary worked in the Richmond Public Schools for 18 years and retired in the early 1980's. There she used her best talent as she provided nutritious meals to the children and staff. She was married to the late Lewis Edward Cooper, Sr. To this union she bore five children; one preceded her in death: Mary J. Meyers. Mary has left a powerful legacy. Many of us will forever cherish her example and demonstration of strength, perseverance and the power to overcome obstacles. She recognized that her strength came from Jesus Christ and would daily identify even the smallest achievements as blessings. She will be missed, but her powerful spirit will live on! Mary leaves to cherish her memory two sons, Lewis E. Cooper, Jr., and Conway H. Cooper; two daughters, Lavinia B. Newbill and Delores M. Smith; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren and devoted friends, Arlene Hicks and Mildred Clark.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection (John 5:28,29). What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much hope and strength from the Bible. And may you draw closer to Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ. (Psalm 83:18 and John 3:16)##imported-begin##SharonHill##imported-end##
