“ To the family of Ms. Harrid, I offer my sincere sympathy. I know the sadness associated with the loss of one you love and I know the comfort offered by God in his Word the Bible. Please read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15 which talks about the hope of a resurrection for the righteous and the unrighteous. After reading these two scriptures please turn your attention to John 3:16 and Matthew 20:28. These two scriptures tell us why we can put faith in the promise of a resurrection. May these provide you with comfort and hope as they have for me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. One day soon there will be no more sickness or death, because God has promised that he will do away with these enemies that cause us so much grief. 1st Cor 15:26 promises: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." The dead will be brought back to life in the resurrection, which Jesus demonstrated when he was on earth. He raised many from the dead including a 12-year old little girl. Mark 5:38-43. He promises at John 5:28,29 that the dead will one day hear his voice and come out of the memorial tombs. Jehovah has made these wonderful provisions possible, because of his great love for mankind. John 3:16 tells us: "For God loved the world so much that he sent his only-begotten son in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." One day you have the hope of seeing Mary again. May your precious memories of her help to sustain you at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
