

Mary B. Robinson

June 11, 1925 - October 24, 2008

Mary Elizabeth Robinson (affectionately known as Baby Sis), daughter of the late Asbury and Linda Black, was born on June 11, 1925, in Fairlee, Maryland. She departed this life October 24, 2008 after a brief illness. She graduated from Garnett High School in Fairlee and later attended Princess Anne College for two years. She often spoke of her college life and the happy times she had on campus. She was a member of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority while attending College. Her studies soon brought her to Baltimore to work as a nurse's assistant at Provident Hospital. She later tried her hand at sewing and was employed by several uniform companies throughout Baltimore. She loved to make uniforms for such professionals as doctors, nurses and church organizations. She retired from the Uniflur Company in 1973. While in Baltimore working, she met and married the late Kenneth Robinson. They were married for over forty years. No children came from this union, but all the children in our community called them Aunt Mary and Uncle Kenneth. After visiting many different churches, Aunt Mary joined Mt. Zion Methodist Church (now St. Luke United Methodist Church). While at St. Luke, she traveled to the Methodist Conferences with the late Lillian Cornish who taught her about church doctrine and protocol. She has served on the Steward Board and was willing to do any work asked of her. She loved her church family and friends. She was a member of the Margaret White Guild, Board of Childcare, June Birthday club and the Steward Board. Being with family was one of her favorite things to do. She loved going along with family on bus trips, shopping trips and cruises. She especially loved going to the Eastern Shore to visit her family. Aunt Mary will always be remembered for explaining things in a spiritual sense, telling family stories, giving us family history, her helpfulness, and leading the family in prayer. She leaves to mourn a host of nieces and nephews, cousins, church family and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Mary B. Robinson

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Thank God you shared the life of Aunt Mary and you are blessed to have had her in your life for the long life she has lived.##imported-begin##Essie Vaughn##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Aunt Mary is resting in peace now.##imported-begin##Danielle Vaughn##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Death comes unexpectantly and it comes swiftly. God knows the future. May God constantly comfort you. He always knows what is best.##imported-begin##Hilda M. Saulsbury##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Sharon and Family, I was sorry to hear of the passing of Aunt Mary. My thoughts are with you at this time. I know how much she means to all of you and that you will miss her deeply. Love and God Bless,
Pam###imported-begin##Pamela Brogden-Sippio##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM