

Mary Belle Hudson

January 15, 1941 - June 23, 2009

MARY BELLE HUDSON, daughter of the late Mattie and Issic Molden, was born on January 15, 1941. She departed this life on June 23, 2009 from a lengthy illness. She received her education in South Carolina and Baltimore, Maryland, where she became a housewife. In her lifetime she enjoyed shopping, sewing and taking long walks. She had a passion for arts and crafts. Another passion she had was for her children whom she kept near and dear to her heart. She leaves to mourn: five daughters, Doris, Anne, Mattie, Jeanette and Roberta; son, Fenall; fifteen brothers and sisters, eight grandchildren, fifteen great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Mommy I know aunt Vera is flying high with you now. I never got to meet her and that made me even sadder when she passed away. I also feel bad I couldn't make it up there to the funeral to show my respect and say my good byes, and to support her children. Virgie told me she had no pain and she left here with a smile on her face just like you when you left here. Y'all enjoy each other now that y'all are together again. I love you!

“ Hi up there mommy. It is me, your daughter, Roberta. Me and Zyla could use some sunshine. I miss you visiting me. I guess you have other responsibilities up there. We been dealing with some heavy stuff down here. I'm doing as I can as a mom. I now know how hard it was for you. I miss and love you so much. I know you are happy up there with all of your siblings, parents and other family members. I hope you met my son, Yannic. Hold on to him until I get there. Hopefully I will make it through those pearly gates. I was looking for Jeanette and your obituary popped up. I wish I could find. I'm sure you are now able to see her. I don't know if she is still living. I better end this with all my love. Zyla and I love you.

“ Mommy last weekend I went to High Point NC to meet your family. It was usch a great honor to meet your closest sister, Ella. She showered me with so much love and kindness. She has a sweet and kind heart just like you. I felt you in my spirit while I was there. I told you when I was six I was going to find your family. I found them last May. I know you remember your niece Ola Mae. She orchestrates the family reunion. I was giving you an update. I love and miss you dearly

“ Mom, I was sitting here thinking about you. I know you will be joined with your grandson. He is free and out of misery. You will also keep watch over your daughter as she suffers a gray loss. God id our stregnth. He doesn't make any mistakes. I had several questions when he came for you, which I should've known better. You too, are in a better place. I know this. Thanks for keeping watch over me in my times of sickness. You can keep coming to see me. I miss you and love you dearly mommy.

“ I would like to express my sympathy to the Hudson family. The loss of a dearly loved one can result in deep sorrow, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." but, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the hope of the resurrection, stating: "Many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your heart be comforted by your cherished memories and by God's Word of Truth, thr Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ This must be a very difficult time for you, but the bible helps us to appreciate that Christ Jesus will 'wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more.' (Revelation 21:4) May this scripture bring comfort to you and your family.##imported-begin##kari jackson##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29; Psalm55:22). May you find comfort in God and the many wonderful promises found in his word the Bible because Titus 1:2 assures us that he cannot lie.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
