“ Dear Family, I would like to extend my deepest sympathy for your great loss. Ms. Dorsey sounds like a wonderful person and like someone I would have loved to be around. I have a special place in my heart for older ones because they possess so much wisdom and knowledge. They can teach us so much if we just listen. I'm sure she had plenty of stories and experiences to share with everyone. Please know that during difficult times like these, we can draw comfort from our loving Heavenly Father, Jehovah. He knows exactly what we go through. He, too, lost someone close to him and that was His son, Jesus. According to the bible, He raised up his son on the third day. Likewise, he promises to do the same for us. At Isaiah 26:19 it reads: "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine- they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust..." Then, "He will swallow up death forever," according to Isaiah 25:8. Imagine not having to need funeral homes anymore. Well, that will soon be a reality we all can look forward to. Please compare these scriptures to your copy of the bible and see firsthand these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

(2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life.
