“ Family and friends, so sorry to hear about your loss. Death is such a painful thing to deal with. May you have comfort that we have the promise from God at Revelations 21 :4 which says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more". What a comforting thought. My prayers are with you and your family. Also read John 11:23-26.

“ (Romans 15:4) For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.

I am one of the international Bible Students in the area. I would like to send condolences to the family. There is a God of comfort and you can read your Bible so that he can help you during this time in your life. I hope these scriptures help comfort you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. When a loved one dies the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. At such a time we can find comfort in Jesus promise made to all who have loss loved one in death at John 5:28,29 which reads: Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”

To the family of Mary Blackmon, May the peace of God rest upon your family. The loss of a love one is never an easy pill to swallow, however we have the word of God and his promises to embrace us in this time of sorrow. Please be encouraged to know that Mary now resides in God's memory but in His appointed time He has given Christ the authority to resurrect our loss love ones according to John 5:25 and also promise death will be no more. Rev 21:4

I'm so sorry for your lost. May you find comfort at this time in God's word the Bible. The book of Isaiah, chapter 25 verse 8 gives us assurance that God will swallow up death forever. The scripture that brings me comfort is Revelation chapter 21 verse 4 where it tells us that death will soon be no more.

My family and I was sadden to hear about Rosemary's passing; but earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. We have such fond memories of growing up together on Lafayette and Aiken Streets in East Baltimore. To her family, we have you all in prayer. God is an awesome comforter.
