“Ms. Mary as I called her, was more than just my beautician, she was many times my source for nice girl chats and laughter. One time I remember when I got to make her laugh. I would be swatting flies alot. When they seemed to get real active and stretched out a lot bigger than a fly did I decide to see an eye doctor since a lady I worked with told me she had floaters in her and I should see a docterASAP. Those flies turned out to be a thing the doctor called floaters in my eyes. So when I wanted to make her laugh I would act like I was swatting flies

I Misss her so much. She was pretty inside and out.

*RIP Mary Brown!! Thanks so much for the fond memories. Our friendship began by walking two little boys to and from school who was in kindergarten-2nd grade or later; Her James and my Chris. A friendship that grew down through the years. Mary had a Heart of Gold for friends and family. Mary often began doing my hair right in her own home, then onto the Shop she worked at for many years. Mary was loving, caring , genuine but mostly Mary loved serving God, family, her many friends and clients.
Thanks Mary for the fond memories. Vanessa Gainey*
