

Mary Mag Bryant

March 30, 1930 - November 2, 2013

MARY M. BRYANT (also known as Maggie), daughter of the late Beulah Earrington and Johnny Miller, was born in Queenstown, Talbot County, Maryland. She departed this life on November 2, 2013 after a lengthy illness. A host of angels escorted her home. She received her education in Baltimore, Maryland at Dunbar High School and was employed by the State of Maryland as a professional day care provider for nineteen years. She provided care for an uncountable number of children in her community. Because of her loving and caring heart everyone wanted Maggie to provide care for their babies. Maggie was baptized and saved, and she loved the Lord. She was married to the late George H. Bryant for fifty-six years whom she loved and care for until he departed this life. Out of this union she gave birth to twelve children, eight of whom survived her, George J. Bryant Jr., Robert L. Bryant (Cynthia), Lovell A. Bryant (Carolyn), Marvin Bryant (Rayshel), Lydell H. Bryant, Mary Bryant, Vernell Bryant and Zenobia Bryant. She is also survived by: five sisters and one brother, thirty-three grandchildren and twenty-seven great-grandchildren; and two special friends, Delores Clark and Kitty Parker. She now joins: three daughters, Gail Bryant, Joyce McManis, and Karen Bryant; one son, Mark Bryant; and her special friends, Louise Jackson and Elnore Bradley. The trumpets sound, and the Angels surround God's open hands and made His plan to take His child on Home. She said, "Oh Lord, Oh Lord! I know You are here. My work is done, I am ready to come home. Amen (Peace)."

“ Our family would like to express our condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing."

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
