“ Hello Family & Friends of Ms. Carter, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Death leaves an empty space in our lives. But, Almighty God promises to fill that space with the return of our loved one. How will He do this? Daniel 12:2 helps us to see that God will do this by bringing the person back to life. They will have such good health that they will live forever. "Many, many people of the earth that are dead and buried will wake up. Some of them will wake up to have life forever." It is my hope that this divinely inspired promise adds to your comfort and strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
