“ Mommy, words can not express the deep sorrow that I feel right now. You have always been my inspiration, my idol. I miss you so very much. Your smile, hearing you say "I love you too baby, when you going back to school" on the phone after you and Ma talked every other day. I will always love and miss you my dear Grandmother. I ask God Why did he have to pick such a beautiful flower from our garden? even though we are not supposed to question him. My heart is trully breaking more than you or anyone will ever know. I've trully lost apart of me. So, until we meet again in God's meeting place my dear Angel, until we meet again.##imported-begin##Karen Wilson##imported-end##

“ To the family of Ms. Trammer, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mary Trammer Ms. Trammer was a devoted member of Mt. Lebanon. She attended the 7:45am worship and often stated that she had come from work. Ms. Trammer had a lovely personality and we greeted each other each Sunday morning. My condolences to the family. I will truly miss her. God bless you with loving memories of Ms. Trammer.##imported-begin##Hazel Davis##imported-end##
