

Mary E. Cole

May 7, 1927 - December 11, 2020

MARY ELLA COLE (also known as Midge, Midget, Sis, and Aunt Mary) was born to the late William Oscar and Ella Cole on May 7, 1922. She departed this life on December 11, 2020, at the Keswick Multi-Care Center in Baltimore, Maryland after a lengthy illness.

Midge was born and raised in Baltimore, MD., where she received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System. Midge enjoyed attending church and listening to gospel hymns. She was also a hairdresser and performed housekeeper duties at a Girls college located in Pennsylvania.

Midge enjoyed holidays and family gatherings where she was always the life of the party. While small in stature, her presence was larger than life and brought great joy and laughter to all. Midge was an avid card/pinochle player who also enjoyed socializing with friends.

Midge was a Christian woman who knew the Lord. She attended Baptist church services when her health permitted, and faithfully practiced tithing. She also loved catalog shopping, worked crossword puzzles, supported the Baltimore Oriole Baseball Team, was politically astute, and read the newspaper daily.

Lastly, Aunt Mary was a jewel, a lady of her word that shined brightly.

To know her was to Love Her. She will be truly missed by everyone.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her sister, Rosalee Kane; brother, William Cole (preceded in death); five nieces, Jackie L. Jeffries, Maria

A. Kane (preceded her in death), Pamela B. Kane, Vanessa A. Deal, and Deborah C. Ward; five great nieces, Sunny R. Jeffries, Monica M. Smith, Melissa G.J. Terry, Trinita M. Kane and Tiffany Ward; two great-nephews, William L. Jeffries and Gerard A. Kane-Smith; five great-great-nephews, William, Deshawn, Will Will, Gabriel, and Trintan; four great-great-nieces, Monique, Tynea, Olivia, and Brielle; four generations of cousins, and a host of additional family members and special friends. A special mention is made to cousin, Geraldine McIntosh for her ongoing, loving support.
