

Mary A. Davis

December 17, 1921 - January 2, 2011

MARY A. DAVIS, , daughter of the late James and Pearl Ford, was born on December 17, 1921 in Baltimore Maryland. She was the third child of five siblings (all preceded her in death). She departed this life on January 2, 2011 after a lengthy illness.

Mary (Nannie as she was affectionately called by her grandsons) received her education in the Baltimore public school system. In 1945 she married the late Edward Beasley. From this union one daughter Joan was born. Mary worked for the public school system as a custodian until her retirement. In later years, she met and married William Davis, Sr. who was and remained a loving, caring and faithful husband until her last days. She loved him dearly. Mary was baptized in Jesus' Name and filled with the Holy Ghost over 13 years ago. She loved her church, St. Paul Baptist Church, her Pastor Dr. C.C. Alexander, and her two favorite deacons, Deacon Fulton, Deacon Campbell and his wife Gloria. She would tell her daughter often of their visits with her. Mary was always surrounded by family members and friends and she will truly be missed.

She leaves to celebrate her life: her husband, William Davis, Sr.; one daughter, Joan Hanks; one son in law, David Hanks; three grandsons, Antoine, Darrin (Lisa) and Rendell (Alexis); two step daughters, Toni Jones, Barbara Stanley; one step son, William Davis Jr., six great grandchildren, Joy, Darrien, Danere, Daelen, Donovan and London; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
