

Mary E. Epps

July 5, 1927 - June 11, 2004

Mary Elizabeth Moore Epps was born to the late Andrew and Estella Moore on July 5, 1927 in Grimesland, North Carolina. Mary attended Pitt County Training School, now named G. R. Whitfield High School. Upon completion of her high school education, Mary left North Carolina and made her home in Newark, New Jersey. Mary became a full time employee at University Hospital of Newark, New Jersey. Mary Epps worked there for thirty years. Mary was well loved by everyone at work, church and at home. Over the years due to a friendship that lasted until her last days, Mary became the godmother of Angel Jacques and Crystal Valentine. Everyone who knew her will sincerely miss Mary. Mary is survived by: one loving sister, Gwendolyn Hardy of Baltimore, Md.; one loving brother, Andrew Moore of North Carolina; a devoted brother-in-law, William Hardy of Baltimore, Md.; and a host of nieces and nephews.
