

Mary E. Fowlkes

January 6, 1919 - September 24, 2006

On the blessed day of June 8, 1932, AUDREY E. FOLKES was born to the late Mary E. Johnson and Andrew Folkes Jr. After a lengthy illness she succumbed to death on September 16, 2006. Audrey was a loving and giving person, but if you crossed her wrong, then you had something to deal with. Basically she was a loving and giving person. Audrey was born at 915 Leadenhall Street in South Baltimore. She attended school at St. Monica Catholic School and then she went to Carver Vocational Tech. for dressmaking, tailor and design. She had to put that on the back burner so she could help her family. She worked at Shoefers Furniture in South Baltimore and then other odd jobs. She met Booker Bryant and had a daughter, Sharon Folkes. Audrey had a full life, and she moved to Cherry Hill where she met other friends. Most of them are gone now but she will meet them again. She started working for Dr. and Mrs. John C. Norton of Catonsville, where she was employed for forty-seven years or really until her health started to fail her, but she kept on going. She did other things after retirement, she started going on little trips to different places just to get out of the house, shopping trips and gambling trips where she enjoyed herself, because she was basically a homebody. Home and work, but all in all she had great joy. When her grandchildren were born, especially her first, Letitia, she loved all of them and did all she could for them. She had great joy seeing her nieces and nephews, especially two devoted ones, James Turner and Cheryl Edwards. She loved all of them. She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Sharon Folkes; three grandchildren, Letitia Kell, Aaron and Erik Nedd; two great-grandchildren, Leonard Howard Jr. and Dana Henley; a devoted nephew, James Turner; a devoted niece, Cheryl Edwards; also another devoted nephew, Andre Folkes. She also had a whole host of other nieces, nephews, cousins; and sister-in-law, Claretha Folkes McAllister. She will really be missed by all of us. May she rest in peace.

Tribute Wall

“ Mary E. Fowlkes

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Mary E. Fowlkes

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ The Davis Family wish to extend our prayers and love to Mrs. DeeDee and family at this time. ##imported-begin##Karen Davis##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family and friends of Mary Fowlkes, please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. Please read and find comfort in Psalms 34:18 and John 5:28,29 and Rev. 21:3, 4. God has promise to do away with death and the pain it causes. May these scriptures bring you strength and encouragement during time of sorrow. ##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My condolences goes out to you and your family. Please be comforted in the resurrection hope that Jesus demonstrated at John 11:38-44. We also have the reassurance that Almighty God will remove our enemy death at 1 Cor 15:26. May these scriptures bring you strength and encouragement during your times of sorrow.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM