

Mary E. Gladden

June 20, 1924 - November 6, 2005

God saw the road was rough and the struggle was endless, and He gently closed the eyes and book of life on our beloved wife, auntie and cousin MARY E. GLADDEN. Mary Gladden was born Mary Elizabeth Bogier on June 20, 1924 in Pinewood, South Carolina, one of twelve children. When she was still a young girl she moved with her mother, Elizabeth Johnson Bogier to Brooklyn, New York. After some years the family ultimately traveled to and settled in Baltimore, Maryland. She received her formal education in the public schools of Pinewood, South Carolina and Brooklyn, New York. Mary was reared in a Christian home and received Christ early in her life. Mary started her early Christian life at New Hope A.M.E. Church in Pinewood, South Carolina. On moving to Baltimore, Maryland, she became a member of Waters A.M.E. Church, where she became active in many programs of the church. She remained a faithful member throughout her life, singing with the Senior Choir in her later life as long as her health permitted. Mary was united in marriage to Herbert Hoover Gladden in 1948. She was known to have a keen eye for fashion, and was an impeccable dresser. For many years she worked for the Continental Can Company. After retiring Mary became a caregiver to the elderly. Mary was caregiver to her mother and many of her siblings, all who have preceded her in death. After a few years of failing health, Mary was called from labor to reward on Sunday, November 06, 2005. Mary was an ordinary woman, doing ordinary things in an ordinary way. Fond and loving memories will be cherished by her loving and beloved husband

Herbert H. Gladden and many nephews, nieces, cousins, and other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Mary E. Gladden

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Mary E. Gladden

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I send my condolences to the family. Please take comfort in the Bible's hope of a resurrection at John 5:28,29. Also, take comfort in knowing that, soon, death and sickness will be nonexistent (Revelations 21:3,4). May you be comforted.##imported-begin##Kendra##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I send my condolences to the family of Ms. Gladden. The one enemy that humans cannot avoid is death. However, that will soon change. At 1 Co. 15:55, we read, "Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?" The answer is found in verse 57: "But thanks to God, for he gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!" That last enemy will be done away permanently at the hands of Jesus. I hope this scripture will be of comfort during your time of mourning.##imported-begin##DEBBIE SPANN##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy. As you find comfort in your precious memories may you also find comfort from the "Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM