

Mary E. Hicks

April 24, 1923 - June 26, 2002

Mary E. Hicks, daughter of the late Agnes Deshields, was born on April 24, 1923 in Pomonkey, Maryland. She departed this life after a lengthy illness on June 26, 2002. She received her education at Pomonkey High School in Charles County, Maryland. She was employed and retired from Elkridge County Club in 1975. Later, she joined Hershel Hicks in matrimony in July 1971. He preceded her in death on January 8, 1976. She later joined the Jehovah's Witness faith in 1992. Mary made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sorely missed by all that knew her. She was a true friend and a faithful mother. She enjoyed family time, traveling, shopping and completing puzzles. She especially loved all of her grandchildren. She leaves to mourn: four sons, Floyd Newman, Elijah Brown, Keaven Brown and Paul Brown, all from Maryland and five daughters, Barbara Smith, Joyce Jackson, Agnes Randolph, Jeanette Weddington and Elizabeth Herring; one sister, Marion Skinner; dedicated niece and nephew, Cecelia Howard and George Woods; eleven grandchildren and sixteen great-grandchildren, a host of other relatives and friends.

“ The grief you may experience at the death of a loved one - your mother - is for all the good times you can no longer spend in her presence. The precious memories of times already spent will help you overcome that grief. For our loved ones, we should only feel gratitude that a kinder, better place has already been prepared for them in the presence of our Creator. Trust that God's benevolent spirit will also help you and your family transcend the grief of today and bring you contentment and comfort in the days to come. My sympathy and prayers are with you and your family.###imported-begin###Gwendolyn West###imported-end##

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.###imported-begin###The March Family and Staff###imported-end##

“ I'm truly sorry to know how tough this time must be for you. It wouldn't be easy for anyone to experience what you're going through but it must be especially hard for someone with a heart as good and as beautiful as yours. May the love of others walk beside you and your family. ##imported-begin## John W. Short Jr. ##imported-end##

“ Mary, Stay strong! Remember that there is no more suffering....no more pain!... Your mother is now in a much better place and she is at peace. Have Faith in the LORD that he has a plan for everything and that he will pull you through. Wishing you and your family all of the blessings and comforts of the LORD during this time of sorrow. ##imported-begin## Patricia Thomas ##imported-end##
