

Mary E. Windom

August 25, 1931 - October 22, 2001

Mary Elexzine Windom, Daughter of the late George Phillip Adolphus Morris and Mary Eason Morris, was born on August 25, 1931 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was born of Methodist religion. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools, where she graduated from Frederick Douglass High School. She retired from the United States Postal Service. She married the late Ozzie Windom, and out of this union they has four boys. Mary had a great love for creating things with her hands; she designed many crochet quilts for her family. She departed this life of October 22, 2001 after a long battle with cancer. She leaves to mourn: four sons, Bryan from Delaware, Charles from Hayward, California, Michael also from Delaware, and Kenneth (son of the late Stephen Windom whom she raised as her son); two daughters-in-law, Lana and Debbie; seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild; one sister, Eve Morris-Laws; two brothers, George Morris and Albert Morris; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends. She also leaves to mourn one long time friend, Ida Ghee. A special thanks to Ronnetta Cole for helping to support Mary through her illness.
