

Mary Bell Edwards

February 24, 1929 - April 5, 2019

Mary Belle Tindull Edwards was born February 24, 1929 in Goshen, Virginia to the late Brittle and Bud Tindull. She transitioned peacefully in Clinton, Maryland on April 5, 2019. Mary was one of seven children and had a very strong bond with her siblings. Upon graduation from high school, Mary immediately went to work providing domestic services.

Mary had two beloved children, Theodore Roosevelt Norris (deceased) and Sylvia Patricia Norris Grooms from her first marriage.

On December 12, 1996, Mary married James Edwards where they have lived as husband and wife in Baltimore, Maryland. Mary and James attended Simmons Memorial Baptist Church until Mary was no longer able to attend due to health restrictions.

Mary enjoyed knitting and crocheting in her spare time. She had a truly special relationship with her son-in-law Rufus. He was her second son and she was his second Mom. Her three grandchildren were beams of light and kept her on her toes, she truly loved spending time with them, watching them grow and flourish into beautiful adults and parents they have become. She also had an extra special love for her great-grandchildren. Each and everyone filled her heart with joy and laughter as she watched them grow throughout the years and looked at pictures of them as they expanded their wings into adulthood. The youngest, MJ, brought extra joy to her spirit in her later years, as she told everyone that would listen about his youthful energy, character and personality during her time in the nursing home. Everyone in the nursing home knew who MJ was when he walked in the door!

Mary leaves to mourn, reflect and celebrate her life, husband, James Edwards of Baltimore, Maryland; daughter, Sylvia Grooms (Rufus) of Clinton, Maryland; sister Louise Tindull Chambers of Baltimore, Maryland; three grandchildren, Monica Lockett, Angela Wiggins (Marvin), and Brian Grooms (Thairi); and eight great-grandchildren: Khari Grooms, Laurice White, Brian Grooms Jr.; Janissa Harding, Taylor West, Hailey Grooms, Rhiley Grooms, and Marvin Wiggins, Jr. Mary also leaves one predeceased by her parents, Brittle and Bud Tindull and five of her siblings: Harvey Tindull, Edward Tindull, William Tindull, Viola Tindull Mason, and Nancy Tindull.
