“ I wish to express my condolences at the death of your dear loved one. The Bible teaches that most people who have died will be resurrected. Jesus promised that those in the memorial tombs will come out. John 5:28,29. In harmony with Gods original purpose, those resurrected as humans will have the opportunity to live on a paradise earth Luke 23:43. also read psalms 37:29. ##imported-begin## Elaine Dawson ##imported-end##

“ We are all overcome with grief when we lose a loved one in death, because death is so unnatural. God never intended for us to die, because he created us to live forever. It was only because of the rebellion of Adam and Eve is why we die today. Romans 5:12 confirms this. It says: "For just as through one man sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." Yet in spite of that fact, Jehovah God made provisions to rescue us from this death by means of the precious blood of his son, Jesus Christ. 1st Cor 15:22 confirms this. It says, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." I pray that you find much comfort and strength from the bible, and may your precious memories of Mary be a source of comfort to you in the days ahead. ##imported-begin## R Johnson ##imported-end##
