

Mary Ellen Cozart

November 12, 1942 - October 10, 2007

MARY ELLEN COZART, daughter of Otis and Ida Cozart, was born on November 12, 1942 in Durham, North Carolina. She departed this life on October 10, 2007 after a long battle with cancer. She attended Durham, North Carolina public schools and after graduation moved to Washington, D.C. to further her education. There she met Melvin Price, and from that union one child was born. Mary moved to Baltimore for her daughter's medical needs where she met and married Edgar Mazyck in 1968. From this union two children were born. Mary worked in customer service administration for many years until she became employed with City Wide Bus Company in 1993. She worked there until she retired in June 2006. Mary's favorite pastime was traveling to various places, where she made numerous friends and acquaintances. Mary was a devoted mother, grandmother and friend. Mary leaves to mourn: her children, Zelda Price, Christopher Mazyck and Bridget Mazyck; grandchildren, Warren Scott, Lawrence Henry and Janiece Teagle; an uncle, Lorenzo Cozart Sr.; cousins, Laverne Clements, Ronald Cozart, Lorenzo Cozart Jr., and Douglas Cozart; and a host of other relatives and friends.
