

Mary Ann Evans

November 25, 1953 - July 20, 2018

Mary Ann Evans, daughter of the late Mildred Evans Williams and Marshall Jones, was born on November 25, 1953 in Baltimore City. She departed this life on July 20, 2018, after a lengthy illness.

She received her education in the Baltimore City School system. She was employed by the Baltimore City School system as a janitor for a brief time.

She accepted Jesus Christ at an early age.

She is preceded in death by James Stevenson Sr., her very dear partner and father of her son', years ago to illness. She will always be remembered for her great cooking. She could put her foot in that macaroni & cheese, potato salad, stuffing and so much more. She could throw down in the kitchen.

She was always a down-to-earth, tell it like it is kind of person. She was the life of the party.

Mary Ann leaves to cherish her memory: two sons, James H. Stevenson Jr and Nathaniel Stevenson; one daughter (niece) Keeondra Evans; two precious grandchildren, James H. Stevenson III and Kaileigh Marie Stevenson; two sisters, Sheila Hunter and Yvonne Boyd; one brother, Joseph Williams, and a very dear uncle and aunt, George & Janie Evans. There are so many that were very near and dear that cannot be listed individually. She also leave a host of nieces, cousins, aunts, uncles, other friends and relatives.

“ Hey Cousin Marry Ann, I miss you Cousin. I remember sitting on Pop and Jane Bench with you talking about the people walking up and down Regester Street. I also remember the wild spades games that you participated in. And how you didn't care for other races of individuals. You would have absolutely hated our President we have now 😭😭😭😭😭. I miss your potato salad and Pop miss your pig feet. Rest Easy Cousin. Gone but never forgotten. 💋
