“ Hi, my name is Evonne Williams. I was reading the obituary of your loved one and wanted to express my condolences. Losing a loved one is one of the most difficult of life's challenges. Since it was not God's purpose for obedient mankind to die it is even more difficult. Even Jesus wept over his friend Lazarus before he restored his life. So of course we miss our loved one, that smile or that certain expression they used. One thing is for certain, the promise made at John 5:28,29 which says "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". The bible promises a resurrection of our dead loved ones. I found this to be a comfort for me and I hope you do as well. May the God of comfort be with your family. Sincerely, Evonne Williams

“ I would like to extend my condolences to Ms. Adkins' family and friends. The loss of a loved one can be very painful that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But God promises to do away with that enemy according to 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. I hope this message comforts your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ Dear Adkins Family, My deepest sympathy to you and yours. I would like to share with you a comforting thought from the scriptures at Isa. 25:8 where it states that death will one day be swallowed up forever. We know that this can only happen due to Jesus ransom sacrifice and the incoming kingdom that he taught us to prey for. May you find peace and comfort in these words. May Jehovah the God of all comfort be with you.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my sincere sympathy over the loss of your loved one. We all look forward to the time when mourning will be a thing of the past because 1Cor15:26 talks about a time when "the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing". May you find solace in the "God of all comfort" (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
