

Mary George Carter

April 26, 1912 - October 9, 2007

MARY GEORGE CARTER, a gracious and dignified lady, closed her eyes and entered into her eternal rest on Tuesday, October 9, 2007. Mary was born April 26, 1912 in Lynchburg, Virginia, the daughter of George W. and Eva Randolph Carter. She was predeceased in death by her parents, one brother and four sisters. Mary was educated in the public schools of Lynchburg and was a 1936 graduate of Virginia State College, where she was initiated into the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. She pursued advanced studies at Cornell University. She taught at several institutions of higher learning before moving to Cumberland, Maryland, where she taught for several years. She also taught in the Baltimore City Public Schools for many years until her retirement. Mary lived her life to the fullest and enjoyed membership in any organizations including the Home Economics Advisory Committee for Howard County, Women's Giving Circle of Howard County, Ladies of Leisure Social Club and Delta Sigma Theta. She was also proud to be one of the first residents of the Bryant Woods section of Columbia. An enthusiastic traveler, she visited many places in the United States and abroad. Mary became a member of Douglas Memorial Community Church on January 1, 1957, where she became a charter member of WANA. She along with late Mary Reed helped organize the "the friends" and developed the Christmon Tree and the Poinsettia project. Mary was an avid and generous supporter of Camp Farthest Out, the Steward Board and the Handcrafters. Mary leaves many beautiful memories to her family and dear friends. Devoted to her family, she leaves one sister, two nieces, one nephew, one great-nephew, one great-niece, two great-great nieces, several godchildren and many, many dear friends.
