

Mary Harris

December 29, 1917 - May 9, 2003

Mary Harris, the last of four children was born December 29, 1917 in Washington, D. C. She attended Dunbar High School in Baltimore, Maryland. Mary married the late James E. Harris in 1939. Born from that union was two daughters, the late Delores Brogden and Barbara Harris. She was a devoted wife and mother and a great cook. She was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses in 1987 at the age of seventy. She was a faithful witness until her health began to decline. Mary enjoyed bus trips and eating out. There things she passed on to her daughter, Barbara. Mary was devoted to her two grandsons, Randolph and Brian. She will be sorely missed. Mary is survived by one daughter, Barbara Harris; two grandsons, Randolph Price and Brian Carter; a granddaughter-in-law, Sharon Price; two nieces, Yvonne Reazer and Gail Johnson; one nephew, Arnold Brown; and a host of other relatives and friends. Not to be forgotten is her faithful caregiver and friend, Mariah Brown.
