

Mary L. Harris

August 25, 1930 - May 14, 2019

Mary Louise Harris, daughter of the late Claude Henry and Anna Margaret Woolford Henry, was born on August 25, 1930 in Chester, Pennsylvania. From the age of nine Mary was raised lovingly by her uncle and aunt, the late Reverend Milton Vaughn and Martha Vaughn. She departed this earthly life peacefully in her sleep to be with her Lord and Savior on May 14, 2019

Mary's earlier years were lived in Cape May, New Jersey. She was the fifth of five children. She obtained her education in Cape May, New Jersey; Cambridge, Maryland; and Baltimore, Maryland. During her years of employment Mary worked as a nursing assistant, a restaurant worker at Oyster Bay Restaurant and Johns Hopkins Hospital, and other jobs far too numerous to list.

Mary married William Harris, and out of this union seven children were born, William Jr., Lenora, Douglas, Maria, Anthony, Samuel, and Zachary. Mary lovingly raised her children to persevere, to be diligent, to be patient, and to be wise with money. She was the spiritual leader for her children and taught them how to pray, and she diligently prayed for them.

Mary's life was one of Christian service that spanned many years. She was an active church leader, serving as a minister of the gospel, a teacher, an evangelist in street ministry, a mother of the church, and a youth minister at Evening Light Pentecostal Church. Her service demonstrated her generosity of spirit, her godly lifestyle, and her powerful trust in God. Towards the end of her life, Mary was heard to say that she was not afraid of death because she would be with the Lord. She remembered that, "to be absent from the body, is to be present with the Lord".

Mary leaves to cherish her memory: one daughter, Maria Harris; three sons, Anthony Harris, Samuel Harris, and Zachary Harris; numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren; two sisters, Velma Brown and Amelia Coleman; two daughters-in-law, Virginia Harris and Kim Harris; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends

“ To the family. I would like to share my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear love one. "When someone you love becomes a memory that memory becomes a treasure may that treasure fill your heart with love and bring you peace." (Rev.21:4). My thoughts and prayers are with you during this most difficult time. (Isa. 66:13).
