

Mary Ann Hasty

October 9, 1933 - October 17, 2016

Mary Ann Hasty, daughter of the late Lucille Turner Ayers and Roosevelt Turner was born in Greenwood, South Carolina on October, and departed this life, after a lengthy illness October 17, 2016.

Mary met Daniel Cox and married on January 19, 1947 in Richmond, Virginia. She was only 14 years old. Out of this union came 9 children. After 17 years of marriage, Daniel left his wife and children. Mary got her GED and worked two jobs to support her family. After divorce, she married Vietnam Veteran David R. Hasty (Grand Dad David) who loved and treated her children as his own.

She was baptized as Trinity AME Church and was a life member. She loved Jesus and relied on him every day! When asked about her illness, she would say, "I've been praying!" She was a praying Grandmother.

Mary worked for Goldberg's Stores and did hair. She was a licensed Beautician.

She worked for St. Ambrose Church as the housekeeper. The priest talked about Mary's cooking because she could "burn" when it came to cooking. She started working for Kernan Hospital and retired after 20 years of service. On Holidays, Valentine's Day, Mother's Day, children and grandchildren knew she expected to see them. Also, If you had a girl or a boyfriend, they had to pass her inspection. In 1992, Mary and David won the lottery for on million dollars!

Mary had many passions. She was on a bowling league for over 30 years and was proud of her 165 average. Mary was a member of the "Club We" and they traveled all over the country and Canada. She was ready to go! Her favorite was Las Vegas. She went there 15 times and would take her family and stay for week. She was generous to a fault, didn't talk negatively and was well respected by her children, family and friends. She will be missed.

Sons, Danny Leroy, Wilbur and Bernard preceded her in death. She leaves to mourn daughter, Barbera Swann, her husband Harry, sons Daniel Cox, his wife Regina, Michael Cox, Phillip Cox, his wife Vicky, Landell Cox, Sr., his wife Patricia, Kevin Cox, Sr. and his wife Darcel, 20 grandchildren and 55 great grands, her friend William Scott, and a host of other friends.

“ I offer my deepest sympathy to the family and was sadden by her passing. Mary was an outstanding cook. She could make fried potatoes and onions to smack your lips all day. Mary loved her family and was committed to seeing them succeed. After moving from the neighborhood we lost touch but I will never forget her. My love to hear family . May you stand with God for his strength during these difficult days.
