

Mary Holt Brooks

July 4, 1957 - December 4, 2007

Words such as these bring comfort to the family and friends of MARY MAGDALENE HOLT BROOKS, a beautiful being that left us and entered in to eternal rest, on December 4, 2007, after an extended illness at St. Mary's Hospital. She was born July 4, 1957 in Richmond, Virginia to the late Lieutenant and Bertha Holt. She was preceded in death by a loving brother Jerome Meredith and nephew Corey Atkins. Mary's spiritual values and love for the Lord guided her at an early age to accept Christ as her Lord and Savior. She later rededicated her life at the Pilgrim Journey Baptist Church, Richmond, Virginia. Mary was educated in the Richmond Public School System, where she graduated from John F. Kennedy High School. She was employed by various companies in the Richmond and Henrico areas, her most recent employment was with Interbake Foods. Mary was a sincere, loving and caring person. She opened her doors to everyone. One of the many things that we will always remember about Mary, is her faith, belief in and love for God. She always had a smile on her face and even in her illness she never complained. She was a pillar of strength for her family and friends; having drawn both respect and high regard from all who knew her. Her seeds are well sown, her service on earth is complete, and she now experiences the victory and a triumph of life. Mary leaves to cherish her loving memories a devoted and loving husband, Grayland Brooks of Richmond, Virginia; three sons, Shawn (Portia), Grayland (Nicole), and Joseph; two daughters, Tasha (Michael) and Santresa (Stephan), all of Richmond, Virginia; 14

Grandchildren, one sister Diane Burt(Randy), one brother Bruce Davis both of Richmond, Virginia; a devoted mother-in-law; Alberta Brooks, two brothers-in-law James and Terrell Brooks, two sisters-in-law Tina Holmes(Vincent) and Cheryl, three dearest cousins Noble Jackson(Junnie), Tony Holt, Cynthia Spates and five dearest friends Cheryl Wise, Shirley Glenn, Terry Bassette, Alfreda Heithcoach, Laura Frankovotch and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors.

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. Although it may seem like there is no comfort during this period, there really is a source of comfort for you. It is found in God's Word, the Bible. Please take a minute and read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15. There it highlights the wonderful resurrection hope Jehovah holds out to each one of us. John 17:3 lets us know what we need to do to benefit from this hope. Jehovah is the comforter and promises at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 to "comfort us in all our tribulation." Please contact me to discuss this wonderful hope.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Hey mom. I just want to say that you were truly a beautiful person, inside and out. I appreciate all of the times that you were there for encouragement while I was in school, the military, and in college. I appreciate you for all of the love that you gave to me, Tasha, Shawn, and Gee. You are the strongest person I've ever known, and your example has taught me how to be a better woman. I love you and always will. I will always remember all of the good times and your beautiful smile. I will also remember these last few years that you had to deal with because these last few years are the years that we were able to get closer as mother and daughter and they were also the times that you have shown me what a strong woman really looks like. I'm gonna miss you but I am sooooo happy that you don't have to be in pain anymore. That was the hardest thing for me. But you're in a better place now. And until I see you again, may God keep you in his hands. You're an angel now, my angel and I know that you will always be there watching over me and protecting me. I love you.##imported-begin##Santresa (Treeda) Brooks##imported-end##

“ To my aunt and my friend. You will be truly missed. Your smile how it would brighten the room, your presence such a delight to be around. I remeber when I went through things and it was you that I turned to instead of my mom and dad. You took my hand comforted me and told me that everthing would be alright. Well it was then and I know it will be now through remebering the good times we had shared as a family. To my cousins know that im here if you need and your'e not alone. Now instead of Four children my mom has eight so if you need guidance, a shoulder to lean on, someone to talk to or maybe just to say I LOVE YOU remeber that my mom is here for you too. To Uncle Grayland may God give you the strength to move on. Though you may feel alone know that she never far away. Her body my have left but her spirit is here to stay. When ever in need just call her name she'll send a special blessing that will brighten your day. I LOVE YOU all Grayland, Shawn, Tasha, Santresa, And Grayland Jr.##imported-begin##Tanya Atkins##imported-end##
