

Mary Jackson

March 28, 1930 - August 9, 2003

Mary Jackson, lovingly known as Shorty, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on March 28, 1930, to Henry and Annie Jackson. Mary was the fourth of six children born to Annie Jackson. Mary's father, Henry Jackson worked at Sparrow's Point. Her mother, Annie was a dedicated domestic worker who took care of her home and family. Mary grew up in East Baltimore on Jefferson Street with her sisters Lethia and Bessie, and her brother Henry Jr. Her two eldest brothers, John Henry and William Henry grew up in Prospect, Virginia. Mary graduated from Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School. Later, she worked at Union Memorial Hospital, where she was employed for thirty years. As a devoted daughter, Mary left Union Memorial to care for her mother through her bout with Alzheimer's Disease. Mary loved to crochet, knit and play cards. She was always interested in what others were doing. She enjoyed trips south to visit relatives and her family's birthplace. Mary Jackson succumbed to her illness on August 9, 2003. During her final days, she was surrounded by the love of her family and friends. Mary (Shorty) is survived by: sisters, Lethia and Bessie; her two older brothers, John Henry and William Henry; brothers-in-law, Grafton (Bugs) Matthews and James (Bobby) Smith; nieces and nephews, Grafton, Jr., Leonard, Antoinette, Kenneth, Bernard, Leslie, Carl, Denise, Karen and Keith; two nieces of her deceased brother, Henry Jr.; great-nieces, great-nephews and other relatives. She will also be missed by her stepsister Vera Trice, good friend Hilda Wheatley and a host of friends. Mary Jackson lived a productive and full life as she inspired her loved ones and friends alike. Her warm smiles, sense of humor and enthusiasm will always be remembered. She was a very loving person. She made every child her child. As we send her off, we must not grieve, but use her loving memory as the focus and example for great contributions and sharing in a world that needs the warmth and consideration as exemplified by her life here with us. The family derives much comfort in knowing that on July 27, 2003, Mary received Jesus Christ as her personal Savior. We do not grieve as those without hope, for we know that in Christ, if she is absent from the body she is present with the Lord.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mary Jackson. When we lose a love one we need to find comfort. Isaiah 25:8,9:"He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces....And in that day one will certainly say:'Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah.We have hoped in him.Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.'" There is no other place one can find comfort but in the bible. Please take the time, read the scriptures and find comfort.##imported-begin##Phyllis DuVall##imported-end##
