

Mary M. Jenkins

April 3, 2019 - July 27, 2019

Mary Magdalene Jenkins was born Mary Hall on April 3, 1930 in Baltimore, MD. She was a domestic worker and was beloved by the families that she supported. Her hard work ethic and loving spirit made her part of their families and was felt through each generation. Mary's loving spirit was perhaps her greatest quality. Her family and friends, alike, loved to be in her presence because she was always full of love and compassion.

Mary had a daughter Alberta Johnson and a son David Carroll, Sr. whom she devoted her life to nurturing. Mary leaves behind a son, David, Sr., four grandchildren: Deborah Johnson, Daphne Johnson, Pride Johnson and Shannon Carroll-Johnson; fourteen great-grandchildren: Larry Douglas, Christal Davis-Salters, Corey Davis, Dara Carroll-Hinkson, David Carroll, III, Dana Johnson, Ranarda Graham, Christian Johnson, Jimmera Melvin, Anthony Barnes, Jr., Shontrekah Johnson, Tytiana Johnson, Pride Johnson Jr., Paige-Johnson and several great-great-grandchildren. She joins in heaven her husband, Charles Jenkins, daughter, Alberta, and two grandsons, Stokey and David Jr.

Although her physical body took its last breath on July 27th at 5:30 P.M., Mary's love was larger than life, so it cannot die. It will live with her family as they continue to spread that love to their own family and friends. Anyone who was blessed enough to receive a meal, a hug, a kind word or a smile from Mary will long remember the woman she was.
