“ Words can not express the sadness experienced after being informed of your lost. I can recall many achievements and gratitudes of love that you presented to your mother. I can recall memories of a very hard working, strong, and loving mother that instilled values and high levels of determination. to guide and love her family. (Monique you have always been strong and I know your going to continue to make your mother proud. ) With my deepest sympathy I am sorry for your lost. From T. Ward and Family
