“ Please accept my sincere condolences. We eagerly await the day when our loving Creator will reverse the process of human sickness and death. In the meantime, you can be assured that our loving heavenly Father will help you to endure the burden of your aches and pains because "he cares for you." (1 Peter 5:7)

“ I send my condolences to you for the loss of Mary. May God comfort you and give you peace, and the strength to face another day. One day, this pain, this grief, that we all share, will be a thing of the past. John 5:28,29 says: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus's voice) and come out; those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May it comfort you to know that Mary is secure in God's memory, and he will never forget her works. May that thought bring you comfort and help you to cope in the days ahead.
