

Mary Louise Jones

January 26, 1933 - July 2, 2025

Mary Louise Jones, born January 26, 1933, passed away peacefully on July 2, 2025, at St. Mary's Hospital. She attended Rappahannock County Public Schools before moving to Richmond, VA, as a teenager. Here in Richmond is where she met and married Morris E. Jones. Together they shared 57 wonderful years of marriage. Mary was a devoted mother to her daughter, Marcella V. Armstrong, and a proud grandmother to her two cherished grandchildren, Ashley T. Armstrong and Maleek J. Richardson. Along with her immediate family, a host of family and friends will share in her memory.

A long-time member of Fifth Baptist Church, Mary was actively involved in the community through her participation in Usher Board #2 and the Women's Missionary Society. Her commitment to service extended beyond the church as she worked diligently for many years at Lounge Wear, Inc. as a clothing examiner and bagger, and earlier at Miller & Rhoads as a package handler and gift wrapper. After her retirement, she continued her passion for helping others as a senior companion, providing support, companionship, and assistance to fellow seniors in her community.

Mary had a zest for life, with a special fondness for fried chicken, peaches, Hershey's Kisses, coffee with extra/extra sugar and creamer, and Pepsi-Cola, as well as baking her famous coffee cake and pound cake, the recipes of which she entrusted only to her daughter. A lover of games, she enjoyed playing bingo and the lottery, but her true passion lay in card games, especially bid whist, gin rummy 500, and spades. In her downtime, she savored watching baseball, game shows, and soap operas, all while proudly displaying her wall-to-wall family photos throughout her home.

Mary Louise Jones leaves behind a rich tapestry of love and memories that will continue to inspire those who knew her. She will be deeply missed, but her spirit will forever live on in the hearts of her family and friends.
