

Mary K. Davis

May 8, 1935 - August 28, 2002

Mary K. Davis Edmonds daughter of Katherine and the late Marshall J. Moseley, Sr., was born on May 8, 1935 in Marshall, Texas. She departed this life suddenly on Wednesday, August 28, 2002, after a short illness. Mary excepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior in 1997. Mary received her formal education at Dunbar Elementary School and Pembertin Junior and Senior High Schools, located in Marshall, Texas. Mary and her family left Texas and moved to Fort Meade, Maryland. They later moved to Baltimore, Maryland. Pompe as her family and friends affectionately called her married Johnny Edmonds in 1987. Mary began working at the London Fog Manufacturing Company in 1962 and remained there until she retired in 1997. Mary was a very faithful and loving daughter. Her sisters and brothers considered Pompe to be their "Second Mother". Mary was a pleasant person who brought a smile to everyone she knew and met. She made numerous friends and to her no one was ever a stranger. She leaves to cherish fond memories: her husband, John Edmonds; her loving mother, Katherine Moseley; six sisters, Rose M. Harper of California Velma Moseley, Minister Thelma Brown of Baltimore, MD. Zelma Shaw of Philadelphia, Pa., Donitha Moseley and Vonzella Franklin of Baltimore, Md., five brothers, Marshall J. Moseley, Jr., Willie G. Moseley, Richard T. Moseley, Reverend Adolphus Moseley and Cary Moseley; two sisters-in-law, Minister Thelma E. Moseley and Crystal R. Moseley; three brothers-in-law, Joseph Franklin, Timothy Shaw of Philadelphia, Pa., and William Edmonds of Norfolk, Virginia; nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
