“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 lovingly informs us that our "enemy death" will be destroyed. Also there is the hope of our loved ones returning to us with the hope of no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(Psalm 37:29, 2 Peter 3:13, Matthew 5:5) May you receive much comfort and strength when you think about these loving promises. And may you draw closer to the maker of them Jehovah God and to his Son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello ! May I take this opportunity to send my condolences to u all. Ms. Mary was almost 83 years young. Losing a dear loved one breaks the family circle. Ms. Mary has great smile on her face in the picture and happiness is there. The world would be a wonderful place to live in if more people found the key to being happy. There are so many promises in the bible to make us happy such as Rev.21:3-5 where there will be no more pain of sorrow and tears and death ,because all things will be made NEW, great news indeed. I am looking forward to that time very soon. I hope these few uplifting words have been of some comfort as the bible says at 2 Cor.1:3 through our tribulations. My fellow feeling to you all .
