

Mary E. Leach

December 18, 1934 - December 1, 2023

Mary Ella Leach was born on December 18, 1934, in Lane, South Carolina to the late Melvin White, Sr. and Runette McGill White. She was the third of ten siblings. On Friday evening, December 1, 2023, a precious flower was plucked from God's Holy Garden as she slept peacefully. Her beautiful and lovely smile will forever be missed but will continue to live on in our hearts.

Ella accepted God at an early age singing in a gospel group along with her sisters, Estella, Isabella, and Susie Mae. She had a heart to serve God and her community. She was a longtime member of Saint James United Methodist Church under the leadership of Reverend Theresa Robinson and Reverend Lloyd Marcus. While there, Ella served with the Culinary Ministry and as a Communion Stewart. She served until she wasn't able to due to health issues.

Ella participated in and supported numerous volunteer community projects. She worked for multiple families and was a very talented seamstress. Along with her sisters, Hattie and Isabella, they made quilts something that they really enjoyed doing together. One of Ella's greatest joys was traveling and spending time with her family and friends.

Ella was preceded in death by her husband Burnette Leach, as well as two sisters, Estella and Susie Mae, five brothers, Solomon, Blease, Henry, Melvin, and Gerald, her stepbrothers, Wallace, Charlie, George and John, and Stepsisters, Hannie, Francina, and Rose.

She leaves to love and cherish her memories, sisters Hattie Isabella, stepsister, Dollie Mae and husband George; stepbrother, Marion and wife Angie; sister-in-law, Vernestine. She also leaves a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.
