

Mary Lee Ellis

December 6, 1934 - December 30, 2002

Mary Lee Taylor-Ellis, daughter of the late John and Vera Davis, was born on December 6, 1934 in South Georgia. She departed this life on December 30, 2002 unexpectedly. She received her education at Moultrie High School. She was a long-time employee of the Holiday Inn in Columbus, Georgia until moving back to Mississippi where she was a cook at one of their fine middle schools. She was a member of Gethsemane Baptist Church in Columbus, Georgia. She also sang in the choir there. She was currently a member of Savannah Grove Missionary Baptist Church in Mississippi. She married the late Willie Ellis of Hattiesburg, Mississippi. Mrs. Ellis made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was always a true friend and devoted wife and mother. She leaves to mourn: three daughters, Vera Fairman of Athens, Georgia, Mavis Sparrow and Felicia Taylor of Baltimore, Maryland; one son, Lee Tommy Taylor of Athens, Georgia; one sister, Angeleane Neal (Rev. W. E. Neal); one brother, Rayfield Davis (Linda Davis) both of Columbus, Georgia (Johnny Davis of Moultrie, Georgia preceded her in death); three aunts, one uncle, three nieces, six nephews, ten grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.
