

Mary Lewis Johnson

January 12, 1926 - February 10, 2009

Mary L. Johnson, daughter of the late Stad and Fannie Jacobs, was born on January 12, 1926 in Halifax County, North Carolina. She moved to Baltimore, Maryland at a very early age. She departed this life on February 10, 2009, after a lengthy illness. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She worked outside of the home for approximately six years as a Machine Operator at Monarch Box Company. But most of her life was devoted to her family and home. She gave her life to Christ at an early age and was deeply rooted in the Lord. Her faith was reconfirmed in 1974 at Cornerstone Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Logan Kearsse. After she could no longer worship in the house of the Lord, she worshipped with Bishop Gilbert L. Patterson and enjoyed the music ministry of Donnie McClurkin and Jessie Dixon. Her favorite hymn was "My Soul Loves Jesus" by Nancy Jackson. In 1945 she united with the late Edgar (Zeke) Johnson, Sr. and out of this union sixteen children were loved, nurtured and reared; four of which preceded her in death; Zedrick, Edgar Jr., Deborah and Juanita. She touched the heart of anyone she encountered. She also nurtured many family members and neighborhood children. She will be sincerely missed by all who knew and loved her. She leaves to cherish her memory; her children, Edward, Albert, Walter, Janet, Ethel, Angela, Reginald, Donna, Zachary, Mary, Zederick and Jeffrey; forty grandchildren, sixty-five great-grandchildren and fourteen great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends

“ It is so difficult and painful to deal with the loss of someone we love. You have my deepest sympathy. Know that the God of all comfort will be with you to help you through this pain, and he is always there when we go through trial. So lean on him; pour out your heart to him, and let him know the anguish you feel; then leave things in his care and keeping. 1st Peter 5:7, 1st John 4:8. One day we will no longer have to bury our loved one, because Jehovah God will destroy our enemy death for all time. 1st Cor 15:26. One day we will see our loved ones come to life again, because John 5:28,29 promises that they will hear the voice of the Christ, and they will come out of the memorial tombs to life in peaceful conditions. May you be comforted by this hope of the resurrection, as well as your precious memories.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To The Family & Friends, I would like to convey my sincere sympathy over the loss of your loved one. We all look forward to the time when mourning will be a thing of the past because 1Cor15:26 talks about a time when "the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing". Continue to draw close to the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you. Sincerely, C. Murphy##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Ma, it has been over a year since you went on home to be with the Lord. As the days go by, it gets harder and harder for me. Sometimes I don't know what to do, so I turn to Jesus because I know that's where my help is coming from. Rest on pretty Lady. I know that God loves you best. I will never ever forget you. As I told you before you went home that I will always hold you in my heart as well as my soul right next to where God dwells in me. I LOVE YOU!!!##imported-begin##Zelda Johnson##imported-end##
