“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ must Jesus bear the cross alone and all this world go free no there's a cross for everyone and there's a cross for me, no cross no crown. Ms, Mary has gone from earthly trials and tribulations to eternal peace!!!! I'm praying for the family in this time of sorrow. my bible tells me to be absence from the body is to be presence with the Lord our God whom gives life and when our story has ended here on earth there's a prepared place for everlasting life, we have no more sorrow or pain forever more. you all will be in my prayers trust God to take you through it day by day.

“ My deepest sympathy for your loss. Death is not an easy thing to go through. We can find comfort from God's word the Bible at (John 5:28-29) "Do not be amazed at this for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever peaceful paradisaic conditions. May Jehovah God of all comfort be with you and your family. (2 Corinthians 1:3-4).
