“ I am so sorry to hear of your great loss. Unfortunately, death hits us all sometimes unexpectedly, and sometimes we know; but nevertheless no matter how it happens, the death of a loved one causes us so much pain, and it is so hard to come to grips with. May the God of all comfort be with you to comfort you in your sorrow, and may your precious memories of Mary help you to hold up in the days ahead. One day, the bible says, all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out of those tombs. May the hope of the resurrection strengthen you until that glorious day arrives.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
