“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss. When we lose a loved one in death, it is so hard to come to terms with, because we miss them so much and want them here with us forever. God didnot desire such pain for the human race, we can see that because of the wonderful start he gave Adam and Eve when he put them in the beautiful Garden of Eden. Sadly, they didnot appreciate what God had done for them, so they lost out on everlasting life for themselves and the whole human race. Yet God didnot hold us responsible for their choice and he gives us all an opportunity to proove our loyalty and love to him. That is why he sent his precious son, Christ Jesus to pave the way for us to be redeemed and have an oppportunity for everlasting life. Concerning this 1st Cor 15:22 says: "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." One day our dead loved ones will come to life again in the ressurection. Acts 24:15 testifies to this fact, because it says that there will be a ressurection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." May the hope of seeing Mary again give you the comfort and the strength that you need to go on.###imported-begin##R Johnson###imported-end##
