

Mary Louise Armstrong

March 28, 1933 - March 3, 2007

Mary Louise Armstrong was born in Stantonburg, N.C. on March 28, 1933, to Mattie Sommers and Isaiah Barnes. After moving to Baltimore, she earned her GED. She married Joe T. Armstrong in 1971. Mary used her many talents in various jobs. She worked as a factory worker, and a seamstress. After her retirement she worked as a teacher's aid, a senior aid at Epiphany House and a cafeteria worker for the Archdiocese of Baltimore at the school at St. Mary's Govans. After her divorce, she moved to Woodbourne Woods where she enjoyed helping in the Thrift Store and helping to serve dinners. Mary loved the Lord. During these past four months of her illness even when she could not speak to her friends, she could still call out "Lord, have mercy on me." Mary was friendly and had a beautiful smile. She was always willing to help whenever needed. At St. Matthews she was a Eucharistic Minister, a member of the Sodality, the Liturgy Committee, the Parish Health Ministry, and the Altar Guild. Prior to this she was a very active member of St Ann's. She served on many committees there. She was also a member of the Knights and Ladies of St. Peter Claver. Although Mary never had any children of her own, she had the opportunity to help many families with their children over the years. She was Godmother to Brittany Johnson and Nyibon Garafan, and she was known as Grandmother to Biniam Habpegiorgis. She leaves to mourn; Gladys Ledbetter, Linda Murphy, Tyrone Wooden, her Godmother, her St. Matthews Church Family, and a host of other friends.

“ Dear Family, Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 informs us that our "enemy death" will be destroyed. Acts 24:15 declares "there is going to be a resurrection." The Bible reveals that when this time occurs the earth will be a paradise with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 65:17) May you receive much comfort and strength as you think on these comforting promises from the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To all who cared for Ms. Armstrong, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To lose a loved one in death is very painful. So much so that Jesus wept at the death of his friend Lazarus. But what comfort can be found when we reflect on Jesus' words at John 5:28,29, that the dead in God's memory will rise. May you find comfort in this sure promise of Jesus.##imported-begin##H. “ To the Armstrong family. I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Mrs. Armstrong was a very strong women. I wanted to share with the family hope from God's word the Bible. At Revelation 21: 3-5 a blessing is besowed upon mankind. There at Revelation 21: 4 the Bible speaks about something we all long to see and that is the enemy death being no more. It goes on to say that neither will mourning nor outcry be anymore.. that these things have passed away themselves. Hopefully your review of these scriptures will help to bring you comfort durning these trying times.##imported-begin##V Hughes##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Armstrong's ! May I take this time to send my fellow feeling to you all. When we lose a dear one in death it breaks the circle. Ms. Mary was 73 years young. Comfort comes from our creator of all thing. We can look forward to the time when death will be no more. Great news to hear. May all the happy times spent with Ms. Mary stay close to you all hearts. Sincerely, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
