

Mary Louise Brown-Boone

May 1, 1942 - January 17, 2003

On May 1, 1942, the late William Diggs and Martha Taylor were blessed with a little girl angel and named her Mary Louise. She received her education at Brunswick County School and was baptized at an early age at Springfield Baptist Church in Dinwiddie County. Later, she met and married the late James N. Brown. While in Virginia she bore a son, the late Leonard Jerome Brown. She enjoyed cooking, fishing and listening to gospel music. Later they moved to Baltimore where three more children were born. A short time later Mary went to work at the Union Memorial Hospital where she met and had many friends. She later remarried Charles Boone and they enjoyed dancing, going to casinos and playing shuffleboard, where they won first place. On Friday, January 17, 2003 at the Union Memorial Hospital, God sent His angel to escort Mary Louise to her eternal resting-place after a lengthy illness. She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Charles Boone; two daughters, Janet Oliver, Linda Fullard; one son, Ernest Brown; two grandchildren, Dominique Brown and Trendell Epps; three brothers, James Taylor of Petersburg, Virginia, Shadrack Taylor Jr. of Hopewell, Virginia and Alex Taylor of Petersburg, Virginia; five sisters, Dorothy Wyatt of Lawrenceville, Virginia, Juanita Stith, Jacqueline Fisher, Margaret Taylor of Warfield, Virginia and Carrie James of Southhill, Virginia and Alex Taylor of Petersburg, Virginia; four step-siblings, Thelma McKensie, Ida McKensie of Dinwiddie, Virginia, William Diggs Jr. and Robert Diggs of Petersburg; in-laws, Willie Yates, Wanda Taylor, John Wyatt, Lewis Stith and Kevin Fisher; stepbrothers, Frank McKensie,

Walker McKensie and Minnie Diggs; two goddaughters, Tammy Wilkins and Deana Woodward; also a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
